

Corporate Expense Limits, Reimbursement & Travel Policy

CLASSIFICATION / ACCESS LEVEL: FINANCE & CORPORATE CARD MANAGEMENT

All employees incurring company-approved travel and business expenses must strictly adhere to the spending caps and reimbursement rules specified below.

Air Travel Guidelines: Domestic flights must be booked in Standard Economy class. International flights with single flight legs exceeding 6 hours are eligible for Premium Economy or Business Class with prior VP approval.

Lodging Nightly Limits: Standard corporate hotel allowance is capped at $250 per night (inclusive of taxes). For high-cost designated tier-1 cities (New York, San Francisco, London, Tokyo), the nightly cap is $375.

Daily Meals & Per-Diem: Meal expenses are reimbursed up to a maximum per-diem of $75 per day ($15 Breakfast, $25 Lunch, $35 Dinner). Itemized receipts are mandatory for all transactions above $25.

Submission Deadlines: Expense reports must be submitted via Concur within 30 days of expense occurrence. Claims submitted after 60 days will be automatically rejected.
